Group hosts Earth Day event

An open house will mark Earth Day 2007 on Sunday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Madison Environmental Group, on the third floor of 25 N. Pinckney on Capitol Square. The event is free and open to the public.

Ancora Coffee and Café Soleil pastries will be served.

The event will include a showcase of Fullcircle Furniture and Interiors Furniture, which is made from doors bound for the landfill. Fullcircle Interior Design service uses salvaged items and eco-friendly materials. Download the catalog at www.madisonenvironmental.com.

The group will also preview its newest venture, Casa Kit Homes, a new generation of green homes, and meet the architects from Davison Architecture + Urban Design, and Provide feedback on their preliminary plans.

Participants will also learn more about Community Car, which now has 550 members who use its vehicles by the hour. Join Community Car for $15 at the open house or anytime during the month of April at www.communitycar.com (enter "Earth Day" in the application Promo Code box.)

Those attending can also learn about EnAct at www.enactwi.org. It's a free program that helps you take simple steps toward sustainable living with your neighbors and colleagues.
